Celebrating Generosity

One of the ways we give thanks to God at Avondale UMC is by meeting God's generosity with our own. The Connection Card in the bulletin is a tool for offering to God our acts of discipleship throughout the previous week. It's also a place to share with the pastor any prayer requests. As the offering plate comes your way, we encourage you to connect with your nearest neighbors.

As United Methodists, we believe in open hearts, open minds, and open doors. The congregation of Avondale United Methodist Church in Kansas City, Missouri, is open to all of God's children. We welcome, include, fully affirm, and celebrate the lives of all people. People of all physical and mental ability, race, ethnicity, age, gender, gender identity, gender expressions, family structure, marital status, socio-economic class, faith history, and sexual orientation are welcome, affirmed, and loved here. We believe that all individuals are created by love in God's image. As a Reconciling Ministry Church, we strive to create a safe space and a community that enriches the life of each person. We embrace our diversity and invite all to be a vital part of our church family and ministry. ~ Adopted November 2019 everything [in] between shouting & silence

Jesus enters Jerusalem: Jesus doesn't instigate his own parade. Instead, just his quiet presence alone inspires the multitude to shout out and praise God. When the religious leaders try to silence the crowd, Jesus tells them that the noise level isn't the point—even the stones would cry out if they were silent. It takes wisdom to know when our voice is needed and when it's just noise.

This Week's Centering Practice for everything [in] between | Center yourself in scripture. Read Luke 19:29-40 a few times through. Read it in several translations.

This Week's Journaling Prompts for everything [in] between | Sunday:

Are you quick to speak up, or do you tend to keep quiet? What triggers you to speak out? | Monday: In a loud world, whose voices get drowned out? Whose voice do you want to lift up or amplify? | Tuesday: How do you set aside "Quiet time" in your life, away from distractions? |

Wednesday: What power do you hold and how are you using it? |

Thursday: What were you taught about humility? Were you taught that it was thinking about yourself less, thinking of others more, or something in between? | Friday: Where are you feeling resistance right now? Is the Spirit leading you to let go of that resistance, or persist? |

Saturday: What truths do you accept about the world? Do any of them need to be challenged?

If You Really Listen...

In the city you'll hear horns, the clatter of the subway, mothers calling to their children, saying, "Take my hand before we cross the street."
You'll hear church bells, Salvation Army bells, people asking for spare change, while others ask for directions.
You'll hear the whistle from the traffic cop,
the exhaust from the bus,
that a train is arriving in two minutes.
You'll hear mothers selling fresh mango,
theater kids selling tickets,
and religious groups selling ideas.
But even with all that shouting,
even with all that noise,
the birds still sing.
Against all odds,
thanks be to God,
the birds still sing.
